Summary of reasons for decision:

The Blu-ray disc contains two versions of a film previously examined and classified by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The film version (OFLC No. 1200890) was classified as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years", with the descriptive note "Graphic violence, sex scenes and offensive language". This decision was registered on 3 October 2012.

The Blu-ray disc contains an "Unrated Extended" version of the feature that is approximately twelve minutes longer than the original theatrical version. The difference in running time is attributed to extended scenes, particularly during highly elaborate fight sequences. The Blu-ray disc also includes three behind the scenes components, five deleted scenes, and several distributor notices. Overall, the extended version of the feature and other additional components do not require a different classification or descriptive note to that assigned to the original film.
